My Boy Shorts

My Boy shorts, my boy shorts

I know you want to see me in my boy shorts, my boy shorts my boy shorts I know you want to see me in my boy shorts.

Baby, what you name is?

I know you.

No you don't know me cause I aint never came here, I got another spot I frequent Yeah you look good but what I just seen with those big old draws.

Nigger these aint draws.

Oh what they called?

These boy shorts.

Look how they crawl - oh little mamma don't take those off - just walk around in them.

Let me see that boody bounce up and down in them - do it one cheek at a time.

Yeah that's it let me smell that shit - mmmmm, that pussy aint got no fumes.

That boody done swallowed that little shorts.

Damn its soft, what it costs?

All these hoes got they close off, but look at that girl in the boy shorts

I know they look good, you gotta love em, my ass (Inaudible)

All of these hoes got they close off but look at that girl in the boy shorts

I know they look good, you gotta love em, my ass (Inaudible)

Man I hate when the bitch try to act all snooty, you all act like a nigger can't slap your boody.

Just pull them shorts to the side, I aint no trick but if you'll slip I'll slide right up in it, but wait one minute you still aint said what it costs, I'll spend it.

All of these hoes got they close off but look at that girl in the boy shorts.

A beautiful warm day in New York

Under a canopy of Cherry Blossoms in Central Park. 1:45 PM. Photo: JH.

Some people were beginning to complain about the heat. A good sign. Beauty abounds.

I went to an early dinner over at Swifty's with some old friends in from out of town. The place was jammed on this early Monday night in New York.

At the table by the open windows was Lee Radziwill with friends. At another table, Jim Kaufman was dining with Laura Codman, in from Texas on her way to London. Laura is directly descended from Ogden Codman, the gran-pappy of 20th century interior design. Ogden Codman is now the god of interior design. Talk about influence, talk about power in New York! Except he's dead. Daid. And I'll bet at least 50% of the design community (sorry, but I'll bet I'm right) doesn't have a clue as to WHO Ogden Codman is/was. Or even his collaborator Edith Wharton. That's okay, that's show biz.

Re: State of Florida v. Jeffrey Epstein, Case No. 2006CF009454AXX

Dear Ms. Belolavek:

[REDACTED] was apparently served with the attached subpoena sometime last week. It is a Subpoena for Deposition to [REDACTED] who is not presently residing with [REDACTED]. I attempted to contact you today to discuss this matter, unsuccessfully. The deposition is scheduled for February 6 at 9:30 a.m. It is my understanding that [REDACTED] is not aware of this subpoena and will not be appearing for the deposition. In addition, I do not know that service of the subpoena on [REDACTED] is sufficient for [REDACTED] because she does not reside with him.

Mr. Epstein's counsel Jack Goldberger is aware that I represent [REDACTED] in a civil claim filed on behalf of his daughter [REDACTED] however, he did not send me a copy of the notice or subpoena for deposition, nor did he contact me to coordinate same. In the future, I would appreciate if your office and Mr. Goldberger's office would keep me in the loop on the scheduling of the depositions for the [REDACTED] family.

Thank you for your assistance in this regard.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey Herman

RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

COMES NOW the Defendant, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, by and through his attorney and files his response to the Motion For Protective Order filed by counsel for State's witness Jane Doe No. 1.

1. In summary fashion, counsel for Jane Doe No. 1 complains that serving a witness for deposition by the use of a process server and the service of the witness' parents for the deposition to ensure service, amounts to "continuous and systematic harassment".¹

2. The Motion For Protective Order was filed by one of the attorneys purporting to represent Jane Doe No. 1 in a separate civil proceeding.² While disagreeing with the assertion in the Motion For Protective Order that Mr. Leopold and the undersigned agreed that Mr. Leopold would accept service on behalf of Jane Doe No. 1, and that the undersigned had agreed not to take the disposition on February 6, 2008, the matter has been rendered moot.

² The Motion for Protective Order was filed by attorney Theodore Leopold. While he purports to represent Jane Doe No.1, attorney Jeffrey Herman also claims to represent the interests of Jane Doe No. 1. In that separate civil proceeding, the two law firms are presently litigating who represents the interests of Jane Doe No. 1.

3. Prior to filing of a Motion For Protective Order, Mr. Leopold and the undersigned conferred and agreed in writing with the consent of the State Attorney's Office to the taking of Jane Doe No.1's deposition on February 20, 2008. The parties have also agreed that Mr. Leopold will accept service for Jane Doe's No.1's appearance on that date eliminating the need to use a process server to serve Jane Doe No.1. See Exhibit "A" attached. (Jane Doe No. 1's real name has been redacted from the exhibit.)

WHEREFORE, given the fact that the parties have agreed to a procedure for the taking of Jane Doe's No.1's deposition, it is respectfully requested that this Court deny Jane Doe No.1's Motion for Protective Order as moot.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a copy of the foregoing has been furnished by mail to Lanna Belohlavek, Esquire, The Office of the State Attorney, 401 North Dixie Highway, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Theodore J. In that separate civil proceeding, the two law firms are presently litigating who represents the interests of Jane Doe No. 1.

assertion in the Motion For Protective Order that Mr. Leopold and the undersigned agreed that Mr. Leopold would accept service on behalf of Jane Doe No. 1, and that the undersigned had agreed not to take the disposition on February 6, 2008, the matter has been rendered moot.

3. Prior to filing of a Motion For Protective Order, Mr. Leopold and the undersigned conferred and agreed in writing with the consent of the State Attorney's Office to the taking of Jane Doe No.1's deposition on February 20, 2008. The parties have also agreed that Mr. Leopold will accept service for Jane Doe's No.1's appearance on that date eliminating the need to use a process server to serve Jane Doe No.1. See Exhibit "A" attached. (Jane Doe No. 1's real name has been redacted from the exhibit.)

WHEREFORE, given the fact that the parties have agreed to a procedure for the taking of Jane Doe's No.1's deposition, it is respectfully requested that this Court deny Jane Doe No.1's Motion for Protective Order as moot.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a copy of the foregoing has been furnished by mail to Lanna Belohlavek, Esquire, The Office of the State Attorney, 401 North Dixie Highway, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Theodore J. Plaintiff,

JEFFREY EPSTEIN

Defendant.

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Jane Doe No. 1 ("Jane Doe"), by and through her mother and natural guardian, hereby files this Motion for Protective Order. As grounds for said motion, Jane Doe states as follows:

1. On July 19, 2006 the State of Florida filed a criminal Indictment against Jeffrey Epstein ("Epstein").
2. Jane Doe, a victim of Epstein's actions, recently filed a civil lawsuit against Epstein. The complaint alleges among other things that Epstein has a sexual preference and obsession for underage minor girls. That he engaged in a scheme in which he gained access to minor girls in his home, sexually assaulted these girls, and then gave them money. Jane Doe was one of Epstein's victims. She was lured into Epstein's Palm Beach home under false pretenses and was sexually assaulted by Epstein. As a result, Jane Doe suffered injuries, including intentional infliction of emotional distress damages.

3. After the filing of the civil lawsuit and during the week of January 25, 2008, Epstein's criminal attorney, Jack Goldberger, Esq., contacted the undersigned to advise that he wished to take the deposition, in the criminal matter, of Jane Doe on February 6, 2008. The undersigned informed Mr. Goldberger that he would accept service on behalf of Jane Doe, but was not available on February 6, 2008. Counsel agreed to use best efforts to schedule the deposition at a mutually convenient date and time.

4. Despite these assurances and understanding, on Friday evening, February 1, 2008, Epstein's process server served Jane Doe at her place of work for a deposition scheduled to take place on February 6, 2008.¹ See Subpeona attached as Exhibit "A" (Jane Doe's real name has been redacted from the exhibit).

5. The undersigned was forced to call Mr. Goldberger on Friday evening and remind him of our earlier conversation and agreement and to insist that the deposition be re-noticed.²

6. After the conversation of Friday evening and with the expressed assurances that the undersigned would accept service for Jane Doe, two days later on Monday morning February 4, 2008, Mr. Goldberger had a process server serve Jane Doe's mother who resides out of state in [REDACTED]. See Subpoena attached as Exhibit "B" (Jane Doe's mother's name has been redacted from the exhibit).

7. The service of process on Jane Doe's mother was defective as an Out of State Commissioner was never appointed and no order was issued by this court authorizing such service. Additionally, Mr. Goldberger had been told not once, but twice that the undersign would accept service on behalf of Jane Doe, yet despite this Epstein and/or his attorney has insisted on having the victim's privacy repeatedly intruded upon by process servers seeking her out at her employment and then again, intruding upon her mother.

¹ Mr. Goldberger unilaterally set Jane Doe's deposition for February 6, 2008 despite knowing that the undersigned was not available on that date.

² Mr. Goldberger has now agreed to postpone the deposition.

8. Additionally, during this same time period yet another adult male came to Jane Does' employment and represented himself as an "attorney" who needed to contract her. Upon information and belief that person was also an agent of Mr. Epstein's.

9. It can only be concluded that Epstein and/or his counsel are purposefully attempting to harass Jane Doe and her mother. These actions are nothing more than a continuous insult to injury upon a young girl who has already been emotionally scarred for life.

WHEREFORE, Jane Doe, by and through Jane Doe's mother and natural guardian, hereby move the Court for a Protective Order prohibiting Jeffrey Epstein and/or his counsel from continuous and systematic harassment.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing was furnished by Facsimile and U. S. Mail, postage prepaid, this 5 day of February 2008 to all counsel on the attached service list.

JEFFREY EPSTEIN,

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

COMES NOW, Witness Y. Doe,¹ by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves for a protective order pursuant to Florida Rule Criminal Procedure 3.220(1)(1), requiring that the deposition of Y. Doe be taken in this matter in conjunction with and at the same time with the deposition of Y. Doe in the civil case captioned Jane Doe No. 3 v. Jeffrey Epstein, case no. 08-CV-80232-Marra/Johnson, United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. As grounds therefore, Witness Y. Doe states as follows:

1. Y. Doe has been subpoenaed for deposition in this case by the Defendant Jeffrey Epstein. The subpoena schedules the deposition for April 2, 2008.

2. Y. Doe is a victim in this matter who alleges that she was sexually assaulted by Defendant Jeffrey Epstein when she was 16 years old. Y. Doe has brought a civil case against Defendant Epstein captioned Jane Doe No. 3 v. Jeffrey Epstein, case no. 08-CV-80232-Marra/Johnson, United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. This civil case alleges sexual assault against Defendant Epstein.

¹ The witness is named here anonymously as "Y. Doe" because of the sensitive allegations of sex abuse upon a minor involved in this case.

3. It is anticipated that Y. Doe will be questioned on the same facts and issues regarding her encounter with Jeffrey Epstein in both the civil and criminal cases.

4. It would protect the victim from harassment, as well as undue and necessary emotional stress and trauma, to have her deposition taken only once by Defendant Epstein, rather than requiring that she unnecessarily revisit the emotional and traumatic facts in separate depositions for each case.

5. It would not prejudice the defense in its investigation or preparation of this case if the depositions in the civil case and the criminal case were conducted at the same time.

6. Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure 3.220(l)(1) provides that the Court may issue a protective order "as is appropriate to protect the witness from harassment, unnecessary inconvenience, or invasion of privacy, including prohibiting the taking of the deposition." Further Fla.R.Crim.P. 3.220(h)(1) contemplates that a witness in Y. Doe's circumstances will only be subject to one deposition: "In any case, no person shall be deposed more than once except by consent of the parties or by order of the court issued on good cause shown."

7. This Court has the inherent authority to protect witnesses in a criminal case from potential emotional harm. State v. Ford, 626 So.2d 1338 (Fla. 1993); State v. Tarrago, 800 So.2d 300 (Fla. 3d DCA 2001). A requirement that a single deposition be taken by Defendant Epstein for both the civil and criminal cases will avoid unnecessary emotional harm to Y. Doe. Finally, the taking of two separate depositions of Y. Doe by Defendant Epstein would be harassment. A protective order under rule 3.220(1)(1) would prevent this harassment.

8. Counsel for Witness Y. Doe has contacted both the attorneys for the State and for Defendant Epstein regarding this request, and neither has responded.

WHEREFORE, Witness Y. Doe respectfully requests a protective order requiring that the deposition in the criminal case and the civil case captioned Jane Doe No. 3 v. Jeffrey Epstein, case no. 08-CV-80232-Marra/Johnson, United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, be taken at the same time, and for such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Re: State of Florida v. Jeffrey Epstein, Case No. 2006CF009454AXX

Dear Ms. Belohlavek:

We have left a number of messages with you to coordinate depositions of our clients in this case, without response. With regard to the depositions of our clients, it is necessary and appropriate for the entry of a court order which would require that one deposition be taken of each of our clients for use in both the criminal case and the civil case. A single deposition is warranted given that the facts of the sexual assault are common to both the civil and criminal cases, and the Defendant, Jeffrey Epstein, is the same in both cases. A single deposition is in the best interests of the emotional well being of the victim. In another case we were involved in where both a civil case and a criminal case were pending, the State Attorney's office filed a motion for protective order in the criminal case pursuant to Fla.R.Crim.P. 3.220(1)(1) asking that the depositions in both the criminal and civil case be conducted at the same time.

We would like to coordinate and cooperate with your office with regard to this issue concerning the depositions of our clients. The deposition of _____ is presently scheduled for Wednesday, April 2, 2008. Please let us know how you would like to proceed in this important matter as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

Stuart S. Mermelstein
